By signing, the exhibitor agrees to comply with the following points:

1. The Inventeur•rices de demain - Young talents area is open to: Swiss or international private or public schools and institutions.
2. A project may only be presented once at the Exhibition in Geneva and the Inventeur•rices de demain - Young talents area, unless substantial modifications have been made to it since it was first exhibited.
3. Project may be presented in the form of pre-series or commercial samples, already manufactured articles, prototypes, models, plans, drawings, photos and texts.
4. In the Official Catalogue, projects will be published in one of the following evaluation categories, and the Committee reserves the right to modify the classification.
12. A security service will operate during the whole period of the Exhibition. However, the Organizing Committee and its representatives abroad accept no responsibility for loss, theft, damage due to fire or other causes, or personal injury suffered, during the Exhibition or in transit.
13. By his formal application to participate in the Exhibition, each exhibitor undertakes to ensure delivery of his project at the time stated in the instructions he receives and to allow it to remain on display during the whole Exhibition. Any exhibitor withdrawing his project before closure shall render himself liable to pay damages and shall forfeit any award made to him.

The Committee of the International Exhibition of Inventions Geneva

Group 1 4 - 8 years old

Group 2 8 - 12 years old

Group 3 12 - 15 years old

Group 4 15 - 18 years old

5. The projects exhibited will be grouped by country. Exhibitors must indicate on the entry form the kind of stand they will need. Stands will be sited by the Committee.
6. Exhibitors may not sell products or articles directly to visitors. Only exhibitors from the commercial sector are authorized to sell their products and items.
7. Exhibitors must complete a separate entry form for each project which they wish to exhibit. Not more than one project may be included on each form. Entry forms, duly completed and signed, should be sent as soon as possible and before the deadline. After this date, subject to places still being available, entry fees will be increased by 10%.
8. Once the Entry Form has been accepted and registration confirmed by the Committee to the exhibitor, the exhibitor is obliged to pay the total amount of his/her invoice within the delay indicated. Exhibitors who cancel their participation before the last registration date must pay 50% of their invoice. Exhibitors who cancel their participation after the last registration date must pay the whole amount of their invoice.
9. Exhibitors requiring an electricity supply, furniture, parking or advertising space in the Official Catalogue must order them on the online technical shop.
